

Rothco Moisture Wicking Performance Boxer Shorts

Stay cool and dry in Rothco's Moisture Wicking Performance Boxer Shorts. Constructed of 90% polyester and 10% spandex, these boxers are designed to move with you while offering breathable comfort all day long. Whether out in the field, on duty, or at the gym, the moisture-wicking technology of these boxer shorts keeps you cool, even in the most heated situations, while the elastic waistband helps keep them in place while moving. Anti-Odor properties make sure these performance boxers won't smell after a long day in the field.
