

Rothco Forced Entry 6" Composite Toe Tactical Boots

Rothco's Forced Entry 6" Composite Toe Tactical Boots are built with a non-metallic composite toe and shank to offer the highest level of protection. Built with denier nylon and leather uppers, Rothco's forced entry tactical boots are designed to yield maximum durability while working in the field. Along with the other components, this combat boot features a slip-resistant rubber cup sole, suede collar, and hard plastic hardware with a 1 1/2" heel.
