

Rothco Concealed Carry Messenger Bag

We've redesigned our top selling messenger bag to carry your firearm! The Rothco Concealed Carry Messenger Bag is a 15" x 11" x 6" canvas messenger bag with concealed carry compartment for firearms. The main compartment features a hard insert dividing the concealed carry compartment and the main storage compartment. The concealed carry compartment is fully lined with loop material to easy attach a holster panel at the desired angle. The compartment features 2 elastic loops on each side for single magazine storage. The concealed carry messenger bag also features 2 front magnetic closure pockets lined with MOLLE straps on the outside. The bag features concealed carry access via a top 13" zipper or two 8" side zippers. Additionally, there is a top carry handle and an adjustable padded shoulder strap with a detachable quick release buckle.
