

Rothco CWU-45P Flight Jacket

Rothco's CWU-45P military style flight jacket and is the perfect jacket for cold weather activities. A 100% nylon outer shell repels water keeping you dry while the 100% polyester quilted liner (interior shell matches outer shell) is designed for warmth. In fact "CWU" stands for Cold Weather Uniform. The flight jacket features a classic military design, equipped with knit wrist cuffs and waistband, two fully lined front cargo pockets with hook & loop fasteners, and a 2" X 4 1/4" hook & loop badge on the left chest. Side sleeve zippered utility pocket with additional pencil pockets offer even more storage options for small essential gear and the nylon storm flap and special stand up collar offer added protection from the elements. Keeping with the classic military flight jacket style, all zippers are brass with leather pull tabs.
