

Rothco Security Concealed Carry Hoodie

Rothco's Security Concealed Carry Hoodie offers both comfort and concealment of your waistband carry weapon with a pass-through kangaroo pocket. Both sleeves of the sweatshirt feature a 4.5" x 4.5" zippered pocket and thumb holes in the cuff. The right sleeve features an additional loop patch while the left sleeve features 2 pen pockets and a wire pass-through port. With an extended length and wider kangaroo pocket complete with ambidextrous pass through for silent and discreet draw, this super soft tactical hooded sweatshirt will keep you both warm and protected. Security is printed across the back and on the wearers left chest. Rothco offers an extensive line of concealed carry clothing and gear.
