

Rothco Tactical Airsoft Combat Shirt

Rothco's Tactical Airsoft Combat Shirt offers the same look and feel of our FR NYCO Combat Shirt but in a cotton/poly material (sleeves of the tactical shirt are 55% Cotton & 45% Polyester, the front and back are 60% Cotton % 40 Polyester). The combat shirt is lightweight and breathable offering you superior comfort and range of motion for when you are at the range, hunting or playing Airsoft. For durability, reinforced anti-abrasion padded elbow patches have been added to the shirt and for additional mobility, the combat shirt is designed with gusseted sleeves. Other features of the tactical shirt include loop patch on sleeve pockets for attaching morale patches, glint tape holder for IR tape and zippered storage pockets.
