

Rothco Thin Red Line Concealed Carry Hoodie

Rothco's Thin Red Line Concealed Carry Hoodie offers both comfort and concealment of your waistband carry weapon with a pass-through kangaroo pocket. Both sleeves of the sweatshirt feature a 4.5" x 4.5" zippered pocket and thumb holes in the cuff. The right sleeve features an additional loop patch while the left sleeve has 2 pen pockets and a wire pass-through port. An extended length and wider kangaroo pocket, complete with ambidextrous pass through for silent and discreet draw, this super soft tactical hoodie will keep you both warm and protected. The sweatshirt features a Thin Red Line US Flag on both the front left chest and across the back of the sweatshirt to show support for the Fire Department.
