

Rothco's Carbon Fiber Hard Knuckle Cut/Fire Resistant Gloves

Rothco's Hard Knuckle Gloves have molded carbon fiber inserts surrounded by textured genuine leather for maximum shielding and impact protection to the knuckles. Cut and fire resistant aramid fabric provide these tactical gloves optimal protection without losing mobility. The military gloves have two layers of genuine leather palms, a smooth base layer, and a textured top layer. Neoprene adjustable hook and loop closure gives this pair of protective gloves a secure proper fit. These fire resistant gloves are a perfect addition to any law enforcement, military, or other first responder personnel.
